PART VI STAFF EXPECTATIONS

We are a ministry focused on being disciples and making disciples out of our love for God and love for others. Our staff must model this approach to living before we can encourage others to do the same. With this concern in mind, we are committed to providing a ministry in which our guests can see living examples of a Christ-like life. Because this is essential to this ministry, we ask our staff to commit to the following:

1. Living a life devoted to the Lord and pursuing humility, holiness, and godliness.
2. Attending and participating in weekly Bible studies and other practices to grow in Christ-likeness.
3. Committing to a local church body for fellowship, worship, and the teaching of God's Word.
4. Pursuing a lifestyle that continually points to Jesus Christ. We believe the following conduct is inconsistent with a commitment to Christ:
 - Sexual immorality- adultery, fornication, homosexual behavior, and pornography
 - Drug or alcohol abuse- illegal use of controlled substances or the abuse of alcohol or prescription or over-the-counter drugs.
 - Abuse of children- sexual or other abuse of children within or outside the family, including inappropriate physical contact and sexually suggestive conversation
 - Criminal conduct- criminal behavior deemed unlawful under local, state, or federal law.
1. We believe outward appearance and attitudes can help or hinder our Christian testimony before both believers and non-believers alike. Our desire is to exhibit an attitude and appearance that glorifies the Lord and builds the trust of our guests. For that reason we ask that our staff present themselves as clean, well kept, modest, and humble. We feel unnatural hair colors, exposed tattoos, excessive piercings, and immodest clothing are unwise as they seem to unnecessarily draw attention to the external appearance and can distract our guests and volunteers. If you have any questions about what may be unacceptable, please ask the director.
